

From the community

To submit ideas about events of community interest, email mgronlund@redmond.gov

9/10's

Majors

Juniors

Redmond Girls Take District 9 Championships

In Redmond, diamonds ARE a girls best friend...Baseball diamonds that is! Three Redmond All Star teams won the Softball District 9 championships this year – the 9/10s (ages 9-10), the Majors (ages 11-12) and Juniors (ages 13-14).

9/10s

The 9/10 All Star girls lost only one game at the District level and were undefeated at State, becoming the first Redmond team to win at the State level.

Manager John Gibson and Coach Bob Bakker, Back row: Emily Rockhill, Nora DeWater, Front Row: Alex Kessler, Jessica Newton, CeCe Inovejas, Mahre Conner, Kaija Gibson, Taty Forbes, Kayla Hill, Jill Bakker, Sawyer Forseth

Majors

After losing their second game, the Majors had to play and win five straight games to advance and win at the District level. The girls came in second place at State behind Stilly Valley.

Coach Ben Kilgore, Manager Mick Roberts, Coach Joe Hill, Top Row: Keira O'Hearn, Jenny Hill, Abby Kilgore, Alicia Hooper, Amanda Friemel, Melissa White, Alexis Drake, Kristen Higashi, Bottom Row: Audrey Sundene, Elaine Wang, Natalie Roberts, Hannah Raudebaugh, Stephanie Lin

Juniors

The Juniors lost their first game, but then went undefeated to win District 9. Kirkland hosted the Junior World Series for the 9th straight year where the Redmond Juniors competed for the second time as the Host team.

World Series Outcome: Redmond West came in eighth place in the World Series. Puerto Rico exploded for six runs in the seventh inning to take a 16-6 victory over Westchester Del Rey, California, to take the 2007 Junior World Series.

Back row: Louise Chouinard, Taylor Adams, Manager Paul Jacobson, Elise Adams, Emily Graves, Kastlie Joseph, Charley Button, Coach John Graves, Emily Booth, Stephanie Schoepel, Coach Tom Button, Front Row: Tas Khessib, KK Bar, Aliah Sweere, Tori Jacobson, Brie Ripley, Katrina Millet